"The Conquest of Everest" and "Not Enough Rope" are produced by special arrangement with Samuel French, Inc.

Special thanks to our co-sponsors,
the Friends of the Library for making tonight's production possible.

This evening's production kicks off Play Troupe's fifty-second season of uninterrupted community theater.

Each year we present four major shows. Our next production will be "Angel Street" a Victorian thriller which ran three years on Broadway and was later filmed under the title "Gaslight" with Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer. "Angel Street" will be performed on November 3, 4, 5, 10 and 11 at the Lutheran Church of Our Savior.

Next comes our annual Main Street School PTA Children's Show, this year "Tales of the Old West," written and directed by John Royston and Suzanne Traub, to be presented at the Main Street School on December 2, 3, 8, and 9th.

In addition to this evening's show, we are planning five more of these free library productions as well as our annual Teen Summer Theater.

If you have any interest in working with Play Troupe, or if you would like to be added to our mailing list, please fill in the information below and leave at the refreshment table.
